

LIFT40™

This series includes the CAL40/CAL40+ control unit, the BAL40 battery, and the CHL40 external charger.

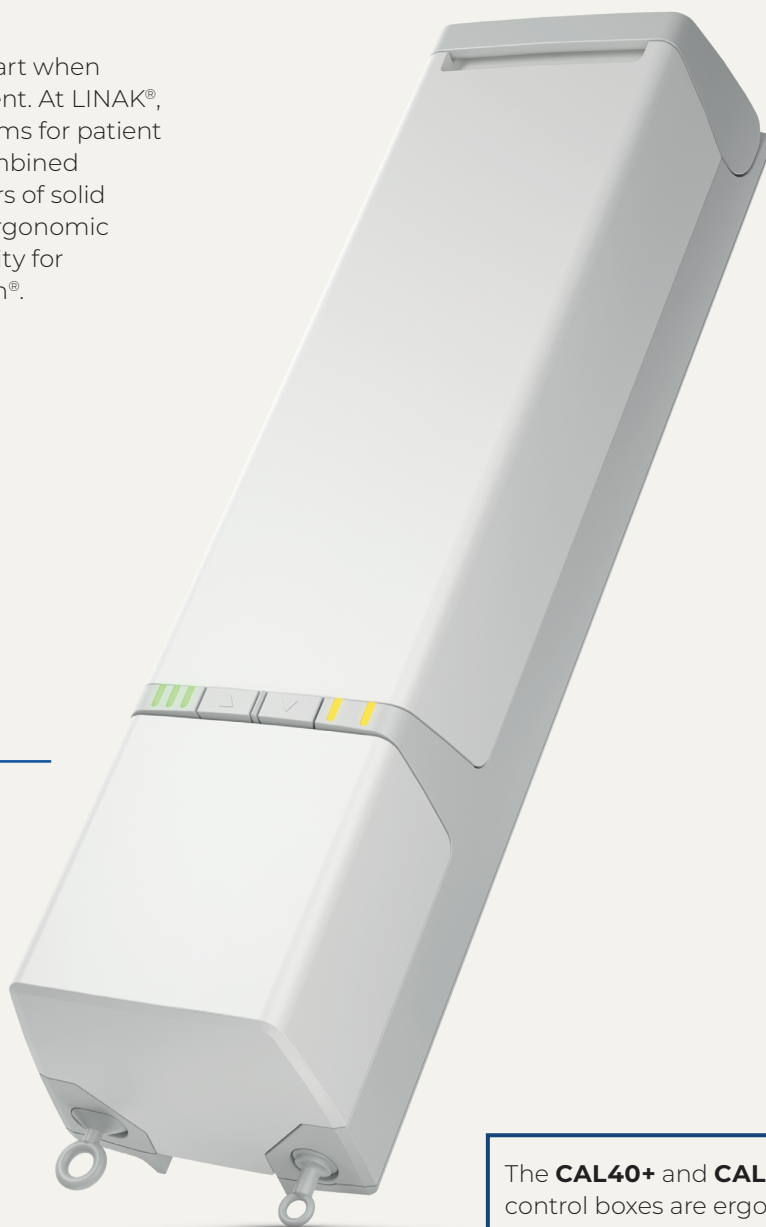

Carers and skilled designers play a key part when developing modern healthcare equipment. At LINAK®, the next generation of adjustment systems for patient lifts is built on real-life user feedback combined with meticulous design work and 25 years of solid engineering experience. Multichannel, ergonomic battery handling and wireless functionality for operation and data transfer via Bluetooth®.

Unique features CAL40:

- One-hand battery release
- Readily available emergency stop
- Redundant controls
- 2 channels
- IPX6 washable
- Unique design and simplicity
- Optimised user experience
- 1 LED battery indicator

Unique extra features CAL40+:

- Bluetooth® for wireless operation
- Up to 3 channels
- Customised software
- 3 LED battery indicators
- Service indicator
- LED service indicator

The CAL40+ and CAL40 control boxes are ergonomically designed with carers in mind, with streamlined looks and practical, easy-to-use interfaces that simply make life less complicated.

- 3-channel flexibility with CAL40+
- Redundant control
- Plug and Play solution

To learn more about the LIFT40™/
LIFT40+™ series, visit our website
LINAK.COM/LIFT